

Request for Change of Admission Term

THE COLLEGE
OF THE
FLORIDA KEYS

Change of Admission Term Policies:

1. Change of admission term may only be granted for up to two terms after the original term of admission.
2. Applicants who wish to enroll in classes in a term prior to their original admission term must submit this form. Requests for admission in a term more than one semester prior to the original admit term will not normally be accepted.
3. Applicants changing their term of admission must separately contact the Offices of Financial Aid and Housing to determine the status of any previously awarded aid or housing assignment. Additionally, students who enrolled in classes in the original term should contact their Academic Advisor to ensure that they are properly withdrawn from those classes.
4. Applicants changing their term of admission who have previously been awarded a Tuition Waiver must re-apply for a waiver for the new term.
5. Applicants changing their term of admission who have previously submitted a separate application for a limited access program must separately contact that program for instructions.
