Before you withdraw from a course, you should be aware that course withdrawals:

*Will increase the cost of your education.

*May affect your financial aid status, such as repayment of a portion of aid and restrictions on future eligibility.

*May affect your transfer grade point average.

*May result in your having to pay the full cost of instruction fee to retake the course.

*May affect your anticipated graduation date.

*May result in your being denied access to limited access programs.

*May affect your immigration status if you are attending on a non-immigrant visa.

*Will result in your required repayment of course fees paid by a Bright Futures scholarship.

So, before you withdraw:

*Talk with your professor to discuss your progress in the course.

*Meet with Financial Aid Staff and/or an Academic Advisor to discuss how a withdrawal will affect the status of your financial aid and your career and education plans.
