Students on academic suspension are prohibited from enrolling in any credit courses for a minimum of one (1) college semester. Students requesting re-admission without serving the one (1) semester suspension may submit an appeal to the Student Services Appeals Committee. Appeals must be based on extraordinary circumstances that occurred during the student's probationary semester and must include documentation to support the special circumstances. Students are only allowed one appeal approval for academic suspension during their enrollment at CFK.

All requests must include the below items and are the responsibility of the student. Requests submitted without the following information and documentation will be returned.

- ✓ Educational plan signed by Academic Advisor: You must meet with your academic advisor to discuss your educational plan and strategies for success.

Students approved for enrollment while on academic suspension will not be allowed to register for future term until grades are posted and a new GPA is calculated and eligibility for further enrollment is determined. Students, including dual enrollment students, will be removed from academic probation or suspension when their cumulative grade point average becomes 2.0 or greater. Students who are permitted to enroll while on academic suspension are limited to a maximum of six credit hours for the requested semester.
