

CFK Academy Honor Code

2025-2026

Each student within the Monroe County School District is expected to uphold high standards of honesty and integrity.

Mission Statement – Monroe County School District and CFK Academy are committed to the education of students. Students are expected to commit to their studies by upholding integrity and ethical conduct to build trust and have respect for their person. This honor code helps to nurture an academic community in which a code of values is expected. All students and staff members are expected to uphold the highest standards of academic integrity.

Academic Dishonesty – Academic dishonesty may include but is not limited to the following:

- Cheating – copying work or giving your own work to another, unauthorized use of study aides, collaboration during testing, obtaining and distributing testing materials or giving and/or receiving information pertaining to a test before, during, or after the test.
- Plagiarism – representing others' ideas or expressions published or unpublished without giving the proper credit or citations.
- Falsification or Misrepresentation of Data – this includes buying, selling, giving, and/or receiving information from other sources and claiming as your own.
- Defacing School Property – any property that belongs to the CFK Academy including textbooks, books, computer hardware or software.
- Lying to a School Official – when being interviewed by a School Official during a possible violation of the Honor Code.

Academic dishonesty can take place on a test, quiz, essay, term paper, lab report, or any form of creative expression.

Consequences of Honor Code Infractions – Violation of the Honor Code may result in a zero for the text, assignment, or project, and parental notification of the violation. The school administrator will meet with the student to make the final determination regarding the upholding of the Honor code.

I have read, understood and agree to the conditions of the CFK Academy Honor Code.
